THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. On 19 and 20 May 1951 at Leshtinsko, six kilometers south of Ferdinandovo (N4204 E2440), a running fight took place between the militia and a resistance group.
2. According to rumor, the fight was fought with light machine guns, sub-machine guns, rifles, and hand grenades. Twelve militiamen were killed. No casualties were reported in the resistance group.
3. At 3:00 p.m. on 23 May 1951, a skirmish took place between the militia and a resistance group approximately three kilometers northwest of Ferdinandovo.
4. The fight occurred when the resistance group was waiting in ambush to shoot Todor Kordovski, a Communist from Ferdinandovo who in the past had betrayed many anti-Communists to the militia. The resistance group was discovered and surrounded by the militia. Reportedly, six militiamen were killed or wounded.
5. The Communists claimed that all seven members of the illegal group were wiped out. However, the anti-Communists underground (sic) said that the resistance group had suffered no casualties.
